- A. Thomas Jefferson
- B. Patrick Henry
- C. Washington Irving
- D. Joseph Galloway
- E. John Winthrop

Answer: B

Explanation:

Delivered March 23, 1775, this famous speech by Patrick Henry presented resolutions to raise a militia and to put Virginia in a posture of defense. "Give me liberty or give me death" were Henry's unforgettable closing words.

Question: 9

The following passage from Anne Bradstreet's "To My Dear and Loving Husband" represents which of the following two literary devices?

"I prize thy love more than whole Mines of gold

Or all the riches that the East doth hold.

My love is such that Rivers cannot quench, Nor ought but love from thee give recompense."

- A. Paradox and Simile
- B. Imagery and Irony
- C. Iambic Pentameter and Foreshadowing
- D. Hyperbole and Metaphor
- E. Personification and Parallelism

Answer: D

Explanation:

Bradstreet uses hyperbole in her description of love being "more than whole mines of gold" or "all the riches that the East doth hold." In the line "My love is such that rivers cannot quench," the poet uses metaphor to compare her love to a thirst that nothing can quench.
