Spelling

Refer to the following for questions 1-20:
Choose the correct spelling of the missing word.

Question: 1

John prefers _____ art to the classics.

- A. contemporary
- B. contemperary
- C. contemparary
- D. conteporary

Answer: A

Explanation:

Contemporary is the correct spelling. It means up-to-date, modern, or new. In the sentence, a contrast is being drawn with "the classics," which are older pieces of art.

Question: 2

Allen told Steve that he would give him the _____ version of the story when he had time.

- A. unabridgged
- B. unabridddged
- C. unabbridged
- D. unabridged

Answer: D

Explanation:

Unabridged is the correct spelling. It means not shortened, complete, or full-length. For example, long books are sometimes sold in "abridged" versions, meaning that they are edited and shortened. In the example sentence, Allen says he needs more time to tell the story, suggesting that he means the full version.

Question: 3

Lisa was known for having _____ relationships.

- A. promiscuous
- B. promicuous
- C. promiscuous
- D. promicious

Answer: C

Explanation:

Promiscuous is the correct spelling. This word is used to describe people who have casual romantic relationships with many different people. It has a generally negative connotation.

Question: 4

The new tax was passed for _____ the waterfront district.

- A. revitallizing
- B. revitalizing
- C. revitelizing
- D. revitalizing

Answer: D

Explanation:

Revitalizing is the correct spelling. It means life-restoring or enlivening. It is apparent from the context of this sentence that the waterfront district has been moribund (depressed and dying) and that the government is attempting to stimulate the economy through taxation.

Question: 5

The increased _____ to the class fund allowed for an end-of-year party.

- A. revenuee
- B. revenue
- C. revanue
- D. revanuee

Answer: B

Explanation:

Revenue is the correct spelling. It is defined as money earned through economic activity. The revenue earned by the class would make it possible for them to have a party at the end of the year.

Question: 6

The teenager _____ some candy from the grocery store.

- A. pillferred
- B. pilferred
- C. pillfered
- D. pilfered

Answer: D

Explanation:

Pilfered is the correct spelling. In this sentence it means stole. The teenager in the sentence is performing some petty shoplifting at the local store.

Question: 7

As he was from a small town, some of Dean's views were _____.

- A. parochial
- B. perochoial
- C. porochial
- D. parochiel

Answer: A

Explanation:

Parochial is the correct spelling. It means locally focused or innocent of the ways of the world. A parochial person is unsophisticated and perhaps naive. Being parochial is not necessarily negative, though the word is often used in a critical fashion. A person like Dean who grew up and continued to live in a small town might not take an interest in the outside world and might therefore be considered parochial.

Question: 8

All of the students dreaded the quizzes the professor gave because he tested on _____ material.

- A. obscere

- B. obscure
- C. obbscure
- D. obscure

Answer: D
